

4th Annual North American Active Assailant Conference

Considerations for School Administrators and Educators Pre-Conference

Wednesday, April 24, 2019 (9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.)
Woodside Bible Church - Troy Campus
6600 Rochester Road
Troy, Michigan, United States

This pre-conference is not only intended for school board members, superintendents, administrators, and educators but also the law enforcement and fire service executives, risk managers, and attorneys who work alongside them. The presenters include distinguished administrators and faculty members who either survived one of the most horrific acts of mass violence in recent history or guided their community through the aftermath. The United States Secret Service will also be presenting recommendations based on 17 years of research specific to mass violence within educational settings.
